

ROBIN O'SHEA, PH.D.

CO-OWNER OF KEY2ED

Robin is co-owner of Key2Ed, an educational consulting company specializing in improving school and family partnerships. As a national speaker she presents on a variety of topics related to IEP Facilitation, Conflict Prevention and Resolution, and Family-Professional Partnerships. Robin has over 30 years of experience in the field of special education. As an IEP meeting facilitator and certified mediator, she brings real life experiences and scenarios to her training participants.

Resides in Arizona

As a parent of a person with a disability and long-time special educator, Robin is committed to empowering students through strong, positive family-school partnerships.

"Enthusiastic and knowledgeable. Robin made the training entertaining and fun while providing great expertise and real life examples." -S.T, Arizona

Stay in Touch

Robin@Key2Ed.com