

ROSIE FISCHER, M.A. CCC-SLP

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Rosie's experience as a speech language pathologist has targeted students ranging from the 0-3 population to the high school level. She also functioned as an Adjunct Professor and Clinical Supervisor at St Louis University's Speech and Hearing Clinic. Her experiences as an SLP has been both in the rural and urban public schools of Missouri. She has also had a limited private practice. Rosie now serves as a neutral IEP facilitator for the State of Missouri.

Rosie is passionate about the art of communication especially at IEP meetings.

Resides in Missouri

As a Speech Language Pathologist, she understands how the art of communication plays a central role in the development of an IEP. Rosie believes that the use of good and effective communication paired with active listening can assure that the IEP team will walk away feeling valued and heard.

"Excellent presenter with a wide variety of knowledge and experience. Led an engaging training and provided positive feedback." -G.H, Missouri
