

SUSAN SPICKLER, M.A., NBCT

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Within her work as an IEP meeting facilitator, Susan shares genuine experiences and situations with her training members. Teaching in San Diego, Texas, and Arizona has broadened her perspective on supporting diverse students and families. Believing in the worth of every child, Susan is determined to make a difference in the students' lives she encounters. She supports families and school staff in every opportunity that is presented.

Resides in Arizona

As a special educator for over 25 years, Susan builds bridges between gaps in learning for students with disabilities. She is dedicated to supporting families and providing them with all the relevant information to reach the best outcomes for their children. Always be the star fish thrower!

"Positive, Informative, respectful of time, offered examples and clarity when needed." -M.N, Arizona
